Permission to obtain and disclose credit and related personal information

For the purposes of this consent, 'you' means all Applicants, Guarantors and Beneficial Owners who sign this consent and Moneytech and 'we' means Moneytech Finance Pty Limited ACN 112 110 906 and its related entities.

What information can be disclosed?

The Privacy Act 1988 (Act) allows certain personal information including credit related information about (you) to be collected, held, used and disclosed subject to certain conditions, including:

- details to identify you, such as your name, sex, date of birth, marital status, current and previous addresses, your current or last known employer, and your driver's licence number;
- the fact that you have applied for credit, the type of credit you have applied for, the date on which a credit account of yours is opened and closed and the amount or that we are a current credit provider to you, or that you have agreed to be a guarantor;
- court proceedings information;
- repayment history information and default information;
- details of other credit facilities you hold and loan applications you have made;
- personal insolvency information;
- a statement that an information request has been made in relation to you by us; or
- in specified circumstances, that in our opinion you have committed a serious credit infringement;
- the fact that credit provided to you by us has been paid or otherwise discharged; and
- other information about credit standing, worthiness, history or capacity that credit providers can disclose under the Act, including a credit report.

If you do not provide us with this consent or provide us with personal information requested by us we may not be able to make the credit facility applied for by you or which you have guaranteed available.

Who can give or obtain information?

Credit Providers

We and our related corporations, any introducer, dealer or broker referred to in a credit application, any person assisting in processing the credit application, and other entities involved in the funding, credit servicing or securitisation of any credit facility applied for by you or guaranteed by you, (the Credit Providers) may:

- Obtain a commercial and a consumer credit report containing information about you from a credit reporting body including VEDA Advantage, PO Box 964, North Sydney NSW Ph: 1300 762 207, www.mycreditfile.com.au and Dun and Bradstreet Ph: 1300 734 806 PACAustral@dnb.com.au or www.checkyourcredit.com.au;
- Exchange credit information about you with each other; and
- Exchange credit information about you with any credit reporting agency and any other provider of credit to you named in your credit application or a credit report from a credit reporting agency.

Credit information includes the type and amount of credit provided, repayment history details, details of defaults under credit facilities and information regarding court proceedings.

Guarantors

The Credit Providers may give a guarantor, or a person who is considering becoming a guarantor, credit information about you for the purpose of enabling the guarantor to decide whether to act as guarantor or to keep informed about the guarantee.

Mortgage and trade insurers

A mortgage insurer or a registered trade insurer may obtain a consumer credit report about you from a Credit Provider or from a credit reporting body to assess whether to provide lenders mortgage insurance to us in relation to an application for consumer credit or whether to provide trade insurance to us in relation to an application for commercial credit.

When can information be obtained or disclosed?

Your personal information including personal credit related information can be obtained, held and disclosed by the Credit Providers before, during or after the provision of credit, for the various purposes including:

- assessing your application for consumer or commercial credit or to be a guarantor for the applicant, assessing your credit worthiness, managing your credit facility or the arrangements under which a credit facility is funded or collecting overdue payments;
- if you are in default under a credit agreement, notifying, and exchanging information with, other credit providers and any collection agent of ours;
- to allow a credit reporting agency to create or maintain a credit information file about you; and
- internal operations including securitisation, audits, record-keeping, file reviews and portfolio analysis

Disclosing Information Overseas

Our business is operated only in Australia. However, in some cases your personal information may be disclosed to organisations overseas including without limitation the United States of America.

Overseas organisations may be required to disclose information shared with them under a foreign law.

Your information may be stored in cloud or other types of network or electronic storage and we will take reasonable steps to ensure appropriate security arrangements are in place if this is the case. Such storage may be accessed from various countries by an internet connection hence it is not always possible to know in which country your information may be accessed or held.

Access and Correction of your Personal Information

You can request access to your personal information at any time by contacting our Privacy Officer, details of which are set out below. We will respond to a request for access to your personal information within a reasonable time. If we are going to refuse to give you access to your personal information, we must provide reasons for refusal and details of the relevant provision of the Act which entitles us to refuse access.

We will also take reasonable steps to amend or correct your personal information if you advise us that the information that we hold is inaccurate

What types of information the Credit Providers Hold

Credit Providers hold information that identifies you, such as your name and address and other information provided by you and people nominated by you when you made your application for credit.

Credit Providers may also hold or collect information obtained from other sources, such as a credit report about you and valuers reports about any property which secures your credit facility.

During the course of our relationship with you, the Credit Providers may gather information about you relating to other products and services that the Credit Providers or our preferred providers provide to you and form views about how the Credit Providers can improve our relationship with you.

How we may use your personal information

We use your personal information to:

- help us process any application you make for new products or services or if you are a guarantor to assess whether to accept you as a guarantor for credit applied for;
- administer and manage all products or services we provide to you; and
- facilitate our internal business operations, including audit, securitisation, fulfilling legal requirements and conducting confidential systems maintenance and testing, in order to comply with our obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act 2006 and other legislation.

We may also use your personal information to:

- analyse products and customer needs and develop new products;
- inform you of products and services provided by us or our preferred providers which we consider may be of value or interest to you, unless you tell or have previously told us not to;
- manage overdue payments;
- fraud prevention measures; and
- other purposes set out in our privacy policy and our credit reporting policy.

Credit Providers' rights to disclose your personal information

The Credit Providers may disclose your personal information, if it is necessary to do so in the following circumstances:
